NOTE: The allocation board may redirect your gift if they perceive needs elsewhere in the community that are greater. By giving under these terms, you are granting variance of power. United Way cannot verify the financial viability of agencies whose programs are not reviewed by the allocation board. If your designation cannot be processed, United Way will make every effort to contact you. If unable to do so, your gift will be invested in the United Way Community Fund. Agencies must be in strict compliance with Executive Order 13224 of the Patriot Act of 2001 and the Treasury Guidelines. Donor designation pledges will be assessed uncollectable and administrative fees. United Way does not provide goods or services in whole or in partial consideration for any contributions made via this pledge card.
